

GUIDE TO THE LEWIS OIL COMPANY CALENDAR ILLUSTRATIONS

Collection Abstract: Sixteen images from the covers of calendars printed by the Lewis Oil Co. of Port Washington, New York. The images depict historic buildings and scenes of Port Washington and surrounding areas.

Collection Title: THE LEWIS OIL COMPANY CALENDAR ILLUSTRATIONS

Inclusive Dates: ca. 1939-1963

Size: 1 Box (.5 l.f.)

Source: Unknown

Prepared by: Francesca Pitaro, 2006

Repository: Port Washington Public Library Local History Center

LEWIS OIL COMPANY CALENDAR ILLUSTRATIONS

SCOPE AND CONTENT:

The collection is made up of calendar covers (approximately 5 x 7 inches) and some complete calendars, published by the Lewis Oil Company from 1939 to 1963. The images are of historic buildings and scenes in Port Washington, New York and surrounding towns. The back of the picture gives some historical information.

BOX LIST:

Box 1

List of Illustrations:

1. "Plandome Mill / Plandome Manor, Long Island / erected about 1700" (4 copies)
2. "Adam Mott's Tide Mill, Cow Bay"
3. "Port Washington and Cow Bay from Mill Pond Road / about 1875"
4. "Sands Point Light / 1809-1937"
5. "Friends Meeting, founded 1702 / Manhasset"
6. "Cow Bay School House, 1840, and Free Church of Manhasset"
7. "Sands Point Hotel / 1850-1892"
8. "Sands House / Sands Point, Port Washington / erected 1695" (2 copies)
9. "The Baxter Homestead, Port Washington"
10. "Saddle Rock Grist Mill / Great Neck, Long Island / erected 1715" (2 copies)
11. "Old Grist Mill on the Udall Tide Pond"
12. "North Shore's First Post Office / Little Neck" (2 copies)
13. "Picnics and Parasols / Cold Spring Harbor / 1881"
14. "At the Crossroads / 1840 / Jericho Turnpike at Commack" (2 copies)
15. "Clinton Academy, East Hampton, Long Island" (2 copies)