EVENTS

1 Wednesday

LIBRARY BOARD OF TRUSTEES ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING. The public is invited at 7:30 p.m.

2 Thursday

SOUND SWAP. The Amigos deliver Indie-Americana music blending elements of folk, rock, zydeco, Cajun and hot jazz. Story in this issue. Sponsored by the Friends of the Library. 7:30 p.m.

3 Friday

SANDWICHED IN: *How to Live Forever* (*Results May Vary)* (2010-94 min.). Director Mark Wexler embarks on a worldwide trek to investigate just what it means to grow old and what it could mean to really live forever. But whose advice should he take? Does a chain-smoking, beer-drinking centenarian marathoner have all the answers? What about an elder porn star? Wexler contrasts these unusual characters with the insights of health, fitness and life-extension experts in his engaging documentary, which challenges our notions of youth and aging with comic poignancy. Begun as a study in life-extension, the film evolves into a thought-provoking examination of what truly gives life meaning. A Docurama release. 12:10 p.m.

SCRABBLE: Join us for a game! Fridays in June from 2 to 5 p.m.

"STILL ALICE" (2014-101 min.). Linguistics professor Alice Howland (Oscar winner Julianne Moore) and her family find their bonds tested when she is diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease. Writer/directors Richard Glatzner and Wash Westmoreland adapted a novel by Lisa Genova. 7:30 p.m.

6 Monday

WOMEN IN FILM. Professor Val Franco will introduce and discuss four films on four Monday evenings. Tonight, Caterina in the Big City (Caterina va in Citta) (2003-106 min.). This romantic comedy follows young Caterina as she comes to grips with the fast-paced social scene in Rome. Having to choose between the artistic elite and the political power players, will she forget the most important person in her new social circles—herself? Director Paolo Virzi scripted with Francesco Bruni. In Italian with English subtitles. Note the early start time: 7 p.m.

7 Tuesday

10 Friday

SANDWICHED IN. "Washington's L.I. Spy Ring: Fact versus Fiction." The AMC series Turn tells the story of the Culper spy ring that provided information to George Washington during the American Revolution. The second season of the historical drama ended in June, leaving many to wonder whether the story of America's first successful spy ring was portrayed accurately. Find some answers with Elizabeth Kaplan, who was the lead curator of the Three Village Historical Society's 2010 Spies exhibit. 12:10 p.m.

11 Saturday

NEXT CHAPTER: Join us for a discussion of current events. Bring your opinions! 10 a.m. to noon.

13 Monday

VIRTUAL VISITS: "Knight Life." Dr. Michael Norris, former educator at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, will use the holdings of the Morgan Library and Museum, the Metropolitan Museum of Art and The Cloisters to illustrate how medieval knights practiced for war and enjoyed peace. Sponsored by the Friends of the Library. 2:30 p.m.

WOMEN IN FILM. Professor Val Franco will screen and discuss Volver (To Return) (2006-121 min.). Part comedy, part thriller, part mystical family saga, this feature from writer/director Pedro Almodovar looks at the lives of three generations of quirky, fiercely independent Spanish women (Carmen Maura, Lola Duenas, Blanca Portilla, Yohana Cobo and Oscar-nominated Penelope Cruz). In Spanish with English subtitles. Note the early start time: 7 p.m.

14 Tuesday

16 Thursday

NON-FICTION BOOK DISCUSSION: Exodus: A Memoir by Deborah Feldman. At the age of 23, Deborah Feldman packed up her son and their few possessions and walked away from her insular Hasidic roots forever; this is her story. Facilitated by Keith Klang. Books available at the Information Desk. 1:30 p.m.

3rd THURSDAYS@3: "Classic or Cliché?" Part 1 of a 6-part series with Marc Kopman, Adjunct Professor of Art History at LIU Post. Some paintings are so familiar that it is hard to appreciate their original qualities. This series will attempt to peel back the layers of familiarity to uncover the reasons these works became so iconic. Today: Botticelli's Birth of Venus. Sponsored by the Friends of the Library. 3 p.m.

17 Friday

SANDWICHED IN: "Sargent: Portraits of Artists and Friends." The American painter John Singer Sargent depicted some of the leading artists, writers, performers and art patrons of his day, many of whom were close friends. His portraits include intimate views of Monet, Rodin, Robert Louis Stevenson, Henry James and Isabella Stewart Gardner. This lecture with Vivian Gordon coincides with an exhibit of these portraits at The Metropolitan Museum of Art. 12:10 p.m.

LIVE@PWPL: BRB Band presents "Mellow Metal." There was a softer side to the heavy metal bands of the '80s and '90s and tonight we'll hear a sampling from GN'R, Mötley Crüe, Foreigner and others. Before the concert, the audience is invited to join in a sing-a-long to "Bohemian Rhapsody." 7:30 p.m.

20 Monday

AFTERNOON AT THE OPERA: "The Voice of Carlo Bergonzi." One of the 20th century's most respected tenors, Carlo Bergonzi sang leading roles for over thirty years at every major opera house, and continued to give concerts and recitals for another fifteen years. He left a legacy of recordings, particularly with the works of Giuseppe Verdi. Bergonzi sang over 40 complete roles and performed with every major singer of the Italian repertoire. Join Marc Courtade, Executive Director of the Huntington Arts Council, for an audio/visual lecture. 3 p.m. MAC

WOMEN IN FILM. Professor Val Franco will screen and discuss Saving Grace (2000-93 min.). What is middle-aged rose gardener Grace (Brenda Blethyn) to do when her husband dies, leaving her with a mountain of debt? Try to grow her capital, of course! The character of Matthew is played by Craig Ferguson, who scripted with Mark Crowdy for director Nigel Cole. Note the early start time: 7 p.m.

22 Wednesday

23 Thursday

SENIOR ID CARDS. For those who registered beginning on July 7. 3 to 5 p.m.

24 Friday

SANDWICHED IN: "Chinese Music & Song." Aspiring musicians from the Hangzhou Sound of Spring Art Training School of China will perform both traditional and contemporary Chinese music. There will be a brief introduction to the Chinese instruments being used, as well as an opportunity to ask questions about the training and daily life of young musicians in today's China. 12:10 p.m.

MUSKETEERS-A-GO-GO. "All for one and one for all!" Film historian Pat S. Fitzgerald, who has previously presented the compilations "Disaster-a-Go-Go," "Homes-a-Go-Go," "Monster-a-Go-Go" and "Wonderland-a-Go-Go," brings a collection of clips celebrating Alexandre Dumas' caped swashbucklers D'Artagnan, Athos, Aramis and Porthos. 7:30 p.m.

27 Monday

WOMEN IN FILM. Professor Val Franco concludes this series with a screening and discussion of Sonke Wortmann's Pope Joan (2009-149 min.). This historical romantic drama explores the figure of Pope Joan (Johanna Wokalek), possibly the first and only female pope in the church's history. Issues of women's place in the world at a time when women were forbidden an education, the role of religion in European society and the patriarchal nature of the church are all presented, as well as the very real possibility of a romance between Joan and her male protector, Count Gerold (John Wennham). In English. Note the early start time: 7 p.m.

31 Friday

SANDWICHED IN: MEET ERIKA SWYLER. The author will read from and discuss her debut novel, The Book of Speculation. Story in this issue. Sponsored by the Friends of the Library. 12:10 p.m.
