

Library Foundation hosts Eleventh Inspiration Gala

On Saturday, September 20 at 6:30 p.m., the Port Washington Library Foundation's Eleventh Inspiration Gala "Celebrating Our Five-Star Library" will take place in the library.

This year the Foundation has three outstanding honorees: Port resident Marcia Forman will receive the Community Service Award; Precision Works, Inc., the Port Washington-based, family-run and independently owned distributor of power equipment, will receive the Corporate Service Award with president Annette Oestreich accepting; the Elaine and Leonard Wurzel Public Service Award recipient will be Jack Mandel.

The evening will include a performance by American standards singer Nick Ziobro, a 17-year-old music sensation whose debut album A Lot of Livin' to Do was produced by Michael Feinstein.

London Jewelers is creating a Port Washington Library signature charm — a crown with five diamonds to celebrate our five-star library as part of its "Gifts That Give Back" program to raise money for nonprofits. The library will receive a portion of all profits made on the sale of this piece of jewelry. A silent auction as well as a raffle will round out the evening with wonderful prizes. You will not want to miss this entertaining musical experience as well as a cocktail extravaganza featuring open bars, signature drinks, food stations and wonderful desserts, catered by Port Washington's own H on the Harbor.

Since its inception, the Port Washington Library Foundation has donated over $1,600,000 to the library to fund a number of programs and projects not covered by taxpayer dollars. Tickets to this event are $250 and sponsorship opportunities are available. For more information, please call 883-4400, Ext. 180 or go on the Foundation's website at pwpl.org/foundation.

Richard Schepper: X-Stream Barns

Richard Schepper exhibits his X-Stream Barns series in the Martin Vogel Photography Gallery from July 5 through August 30. He graduated from the High School of Music and Art, where he majored in art, and attended Pratt Institute, where he majored in photography and cinematography. During his junior year, Young & Rubicam was so impressed with his portfolio that they offered him an internship. He stayed on to become an award-winning television and print art director.

Richard's work has been published in magazines and exhibited in several New York galleries.

About this show, X-Stream Barns, he writes, "Old barns express the weathering of time. The geometry and different textures of wood and paint as they age have always fascinated me. Thanks to the advent of Photoshop, I can expand my photographic images, resulting in a more personalized expression.

My work has become a celebration of color. Enjoy!"

Summer schedule

The library will be closed Friday, July 4. The library is closed on summer Sundays; Sunday hours resume after Labor Day.

Summer Sandwiched In

Our popular Sandwiched In Series continues on Fridays at 12:10 p.m. throughout the summer. Join us on July 11 for Bash the Trash, a fast and funny performance. Find out about the secret lives of instrument families while exploring the science behind them; check out crazy instruments made from junk; and learn how you can build your own musical noisemakers from recycled materials.

Ken Horowitz, docent coordinator at Falaise, showcases Harry F. Guggenheim's Gold Coast summer home, located on the Sands Point Preserve, on July 18.

We welcome back pianist Mark Valenti on July 25 for summery selections including the sounds of wind, surf and sand heard in Claude Debussy's exotic Isle of Joy, Franz Schubert's Sonata in A major, inspired by a summer romance, and the eerie nocturnal sounds of Bela Bartok's The Night's Music.

August 1 brings Tim's Vermeer (2013-80 min.), a documentary in which Tim Jenison, a Texas based inventor, attempts to solve one of the greatest mysteries in art: How did 17th century Dutch master Johannes Vermeer manage to paint so photo-realistically — 150 years before the invention of photography? Join us for a screening and discussion facilitated by Dylan Skolnick of the Cinema Arts Centre.

George Wallace, Suffolk County's first poet laureate and writer in residence at the Walt Whitman Birthplace, takes us on a journey through the work of some beloved figures in American prose and poetry on August 8.

Professor Ronald Brown visits on August 15 to relive the iconic weekend on Max Yasgur's farm, with Woodstock: Three Days of Peace & Love.

Traveling solo can be difficult but with the right knowledge you can have a memorable experience. Louise Cazazian will discuss best deals for solo travelers, smart packing and other tips on August 22.

On August 29, we screen Sweepings (1933-80 min.). After the great Chicago fire, Daniel Pardway (Lionel Barrymore) builds the biggest department store in town. When he is ready to pass on the business to his three sons and daughter, he discovers that none has the character or grit to take up the reins. Screenwriter Lester Cohen adapted his own novel for director John Cromwell. Max Steiner composed the score.

A glimpse into Port's history

Interested in discovering new facts about Port Washington history? Curious about this car? Great news! The Local History Center blog has been revived! Here we will continue to highlight noteworthy items from our many collections, both new and old. Check out our latest posts on the Local History Center webpage under digital collections. <http://www.pwpl.org/localhistory/experience/>

An exhibit to remember:

Connecting to Collections

The library's Local History Center is delighted to bring you a new photographic portrait exhibition that will open in September. Titled "Connections," its theme is the relationship between individual Port Washington residents and original artworks that are part of our unique archival collections.

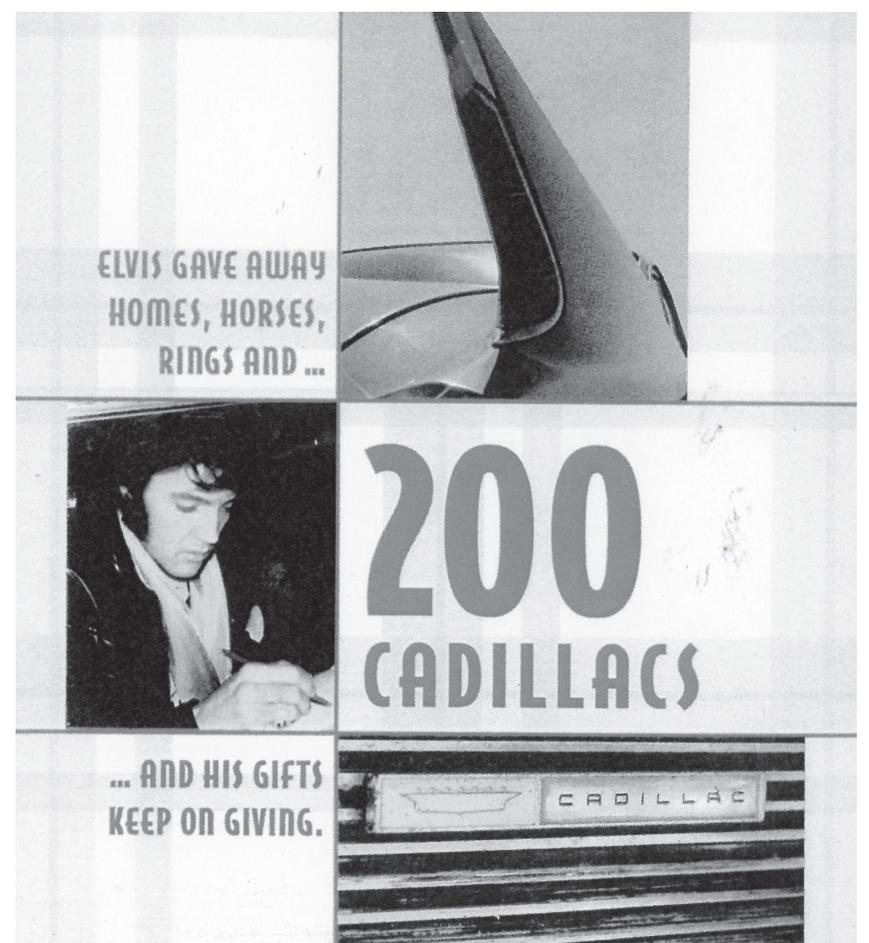

Ken Spencer, formerly a staff photographer for Newsday, did a series of studio portraits of Port Washington residents and their favorite objects.

From etchings to oil paintings to photographs and hand-drawn maps, each piece connects to the person holding it, or has affected their lives in a significant way.

So come the fall season, mark your calendars, come on over, and enjoy the "Connections" exhibit on the Reading Room and Community Gallery levels of the library. You'll be sure to find someone you know!

Rex Fowler presents 200 Cadillacs

This documentary from producer Rex Fowler and producer/director Dan Griffin will be shown on Monday, August 18 at 7:30 p.m. It focuses on the generosity of rock icon Elvis Presley. The King's gift of choice was a shiny new Cadillac. Griffin and co-producer Rex Fowler sought out interviews with the recipients of these automobiles, including drummer D.C. Fontana, back-up singers Gordon Stoker and Myrna Smith, nurse Marian Cocke, girlfriend Linda Thompson, karate instructor Kang Rhee, and personal assistant Jerry Schilling. Rex Fowler, best known as one half of the folk-rock duo Aztec Two-Step, performed here at last November's SoundSwap.

Remembering our friend Bev Halm

"Bev not only captivated you physically, but she captivated you with her spirit, her charm and her comments."

"Many of us think of our library and Bev almost in the same thought. Beverly Halm was an enlightened presence and enthusiastic volunteer in our library for more than 40 years. She was president of the Friends of the Library in the 1980s, and was a fixture at many library events, at art openings, at Sandwiched In lectures, at music programs. She was there, usually in the front row, listening and asking questions, and sometimes hosting as well.

"In 2011, the Friends saluted Bev with the Friends of the Library Award. She represented what the Friends is all about — linking the library to the community with warmth, conscientiousness and intelligence." — Amy Bass, FOL president

Beverly Halm passed away May 4

Meet songwriter, guitarist and journalist Lenny Kaye

Songwriter, guitarist, journalist and music historian Lenny Kaye, who will appear on our stage on Wednesday, July 2, is best known as the guitarist for poet-rocker Patti Smith. He has also worked with such artists as Suzanne Vega, Jim Carroll, Soul Asylum, Kristen Hersh and Allen Ginsberg. Mr. Kaye is a respected author, and his seminal anthology of sixties' garage-rock, Nuggets, has long been regarded as genre-defining.

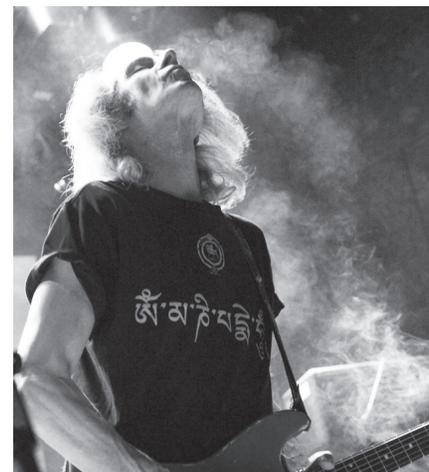

Kaye began amassing an immense record collection while growing up in Queens and Brooklyn in the 1950s. His performance on a song written by his uncle, Larry Kusik, gave the young music fan a sense of himself as a musician, and inspired him to continue playing.

Lenny's reviews for Jazz and Pop magazine would lead to journalistic work with publications such as Fusion, Crawdaddy and Rolling Stone. Kaye also wrote for Melody Maker and Creem, and edited Rock Scene and Hit Parader during the 1970s.

Mr. Kaye met poet-singer Patti Smith in 1971, and the two soon began a collaboration that would last the decade, as reflected in four highly acclaimed Arista albums by The Patti Smith Group.

After the group's final performance in September of 1979, Lenny ventured further into a successful producing career that yielded a Grammy nomination for Record of the Year for Suzanne Vega's 1987 hit single "Luka." In 1995, Lenny reunited with Patti Smith, creating five studio albums, a retrospective, and a thirtieth anniversary release of Horses. Tonight he will perform original songs from his upcoming CD, as well as earlier compositions and cover songs.
