Authors visit Sandwiched In

On Friday, June 7 at 12:10 p.m., meet Douglas Kennedy, the critically lauded, international best-selling author of Leaving the World and The Moment. His newest release is a compelling, profoundly moving novel that explores one of life's great mysteries: how and why we fall in love, and how the entire trajectory of a life can change through one brief encounter.

Crafted in Kennedy's trademark evocative prose, Five Days (Atria Books, April 2013) is a novel that speaks directly to the many contradictions of the human heart. "The prolific Kennedy explores his favored themes of mortality, love, and loss in this fluidly written tale. Deftly depicting how certain choices can unexpectedly narrow a life, instead of expanding it, he has much to say about the nature of happiness, the difficulty of change, and the great divide between obligation and desire." (Booklist). "Kennedy ably raises questions about marriage, identity, and happiness." (Publishers Weekly). Books will be available for purchase and signing.

On Friday, June 21 at 12:10 p.m., meet Michael Goodwin. With clear, witty writing and quirky, accessible art, this important and timely work in graphic novel format, transforms "the dismal science" of economics into a fun, fact-filled story about human nature and our attempts to make the most of what we've got — and sometimes what our neighbors have got. Economix: How Our Economy Works (Abrams, 2012) is a lively, cheerfully opinionated romp through the historical and intellectual foundations of our current economy and economic problems. "This witty and elegant volume takes on a number of complex issues and makes them comprehensible for mere mortals." — Miami Herald

Both programs are sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

PCLI annual exhibit

Visit on Friday, June 14 at 12:10 p.m. for a reprisal of the Photography Club of Long Island's Musical Images slide show. Enjoy a special afternoon of images, music and refreshments. The library has partnered with PCLI for decades to produce these unique and highly popular shows.

"This year's show is dedicated to Martin Vogel, the founder of the Photography Club of Long Island and a devoted advocate of our library. Marty was a wonderful photographer, an inspiring mentor and a great friend to so many in the group and beyond. In his honor, PCLI members have worked long and hard to produce an outstanding Music and Images Show," says PCLI member Barbara Spivack.

The show features visits to Russia, Peru, Jordan and the Mediterranean. There are tributes to the American West, fabulous birds on the wing, a compelling view of the mysterious beauty of Florida, a rousing tribute to the Flushing Lunar parade and more.

Arrive early or stay late to admire the diverse photographs by club members on display in the library's Martin Vogel Photography Gallery throughout the month. For further information about PCLI, visit www.pcliphoto.org.

Happy Birthday, Errol Flynn!

Errol Leslie Thomson Flynn was born in Tasmania, Australia on June 20, 1909. Athletic, handsome and charming, the 6'2" actor was equally at home in period swash-bucklers, westerns or war films. Nicknamed Rolly, The Baron, Satan's Angel, Flynny and The Tasmanian Devil, his avid pursuit of drinking, fighting and womanizing led to his death of a heart attack at age 50 on October 14, 1959.

Our circulating DVD collection includes these Flynn titles: Adventures of Don Juan (1948) • Against All Flags • The Adventures of Robin Hood (1938) • Captain Blood (1935) • The Charge of the Light Brigade (1936) • The Dawn Patrol (1938) • Desperate Journey (1942) • Dive Bomber (1941) • Dodge City (1939) • Edge of Darkness (1943) • Gentleman Jim (1942) • Kim (1950) • The Master of the Ballantrae (1953) • Montana (1950) • Northern Pursuit (1943) • Objective, Burma! (1945) • The Prince and the Pauper (1937) • The Private Lives of Elizabeth and Essex

(1939) • Rocky Mountain (1950) • San Antonio (1945) • The Sea Hawk (1940) • The Sun Also Rises (1957) • They Died with Their Boots On (1942) • Uncertain Glory (1944) • Virginia City (1940).

To learn more about the star, watch David Heeley's documentary, The Adventures of Errol Flynn (2005), and read Jeffrey Meyers's Inherited Risk: Errol & Sean Flynn in Hollywood and Vietnam (2002) and Flynn's autobiography, My Wicked, Wicked Ways (1959).

Summer Reading Programs

The following two programs begin June 24 and end August 15. Pre-registration not required - sign-up when you are ready to begin and participate.

Dig Into Reading

Children entering first through sixth grade are invited to join. Keep track of the suggested activities and books you have read at home and receive prizes. At the end of the 8 week program, members who have read at least 6 books will receive a certificate, participation gift and an invitation to the Children's Room carnival on Friday, August 16.

Smart Start for Babies, Toddlers and Preschoolers

Learning begins at birth, so it is important to focus on early literacy skills even for the youngest children. To this end, we are offering a reading program for children ages birth to 5 years old with activities, gifts and programs. Participation is simple - just read, sing or do fingerplays with your child at home. Record the activities you have shared and we'll have gifts for your child. Save the date for this special program, Dance Party with Lesley on August 15 - details to follow.

FOL U: another success

An enthusiastic crowd enjoyed the Friends of the Library's "FOL University" lecture program on April 14, which featured two distinguished academics lecturing on two fascinating topics. Dr. Michael Shodell, Emeritus Professor of Biology at CW Post LIU, gave a multimedia presentation on synthetic life that included a demonstration of how to extract DNA from a strawberry in a simple home experiment. Dr. Maura Spiegel of Columbia University discussed film director Sidney Lumet and showed clips from his underrated comedic films. Pictured are Dr. Shodell with program chairs Ellen Zimmerman and Carol Hiller of the FOL. (PHOTO: Will Wright)

Books for Dessert

The Monday morning Books for Dessert group recently shared the book Sadako and the Thousand Paper Cranes by Eleanor Coerr.

Hospitalized with the dreaded atom bomb disease, leukemia, after World War II, a child in Hiroshima races against time to fold one thousand paper cranes to verify the legend that by doing so a sick person will become healthy. The young girl eventually succumbs to her illness, but her friends continue to fold the origami cranes.

The group was so touched by the story that their teacher, Annmarie Benziger, arranged for them to fold their own origami cranes. The group was directed in the paper folding by Marian Weissman.

Books for Dessert is a book club for adults over 21 with intellectual disabilities, who have little or no reading ability. Members meet to enjoy and discuss books and life. The program welcomes new members. If you know anyone who may be interested, please call Lee Fertitta at 883-4400, Ext. 135.

Books for Dessert is funded by the Port Washington Library Foundation.

“The most exciting moment in my life”

The most exciting moment in my life was passing my English final exam at Nassau Community College. It meant the world to me because it made me realize how smart a person I really am. In addition, I proved wrong most of the people who doubted me for so many years. I felt so proud of myself and I was on cloud nine because of the hard work that I put into getting prepared for the final exam. I want to thank Peggy and Haydee for this wonderful ESOL program. I worked with Ted Goldsmith, English teacher extraordinaire. Having put in the hard work into preparing for the final exam showed me that hard work does pay off. The sky is the limit for me and I am looking forward to great things. Thank you, Ted, for being there for me and helping me and getting me to believe and feel confident in myself. Thanks a million!

Love,
David

Passengers #12

Luca Piola: Passengers

Port Washington artist Luca Piola exhibits his Passengers series in the Main Gallery June 1 through 29. The Art Advisory Council hosts a reception for the artist on Saturday, June 1 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Piola was born in Genoa, Italy, and moved to New York after projects, exhibitions and books in Italy. He studied at Liceo Classico and at the University of Parma.

Piola says that he wishes to deepen his personal research, immerse himself in an artistic, multicultural, and multiethnic community. He hopes that his own European culture will interweave with the incredible creative energy of this country. With this new breath he enters into American museums and begins the project “Passengers.”

Piola began to show his work in 1999 in a group exhibition at the Palazzo Doria in Genoa and Palazzo Reale in Milan. He participated in other group shows at the Castello Sforzesco, Milan; Palazzo Pigorini, Parma; Sotheby's, Palazzo Broggi, Milano (2010). He had solo exhibitions at the Galleria San Ludovico, Parma (2006); Palazzo Podestà, Rimini (2007); Galleria Antica Farmacia San Filippo Neri, Parma (2008), Galleria Grazia Neri, Milano (2009), Sotheby's, Palazzo Broggi, Milano (2010). His works are in various collections such as the “Collezione Maramotti,” Italy, where he is represented by www.metronom.it.

Piola says that he “investigates the relationship between man and some particular spaces, exploring the strong but invisible relation between the human being and his transparent containers. Spaces where man gets in and from where he gets out. The space, unaware protagonist of our existence.

“The Museum is one of my favorite spaces. It is a place that is distinct and different from the world outside. When you enter into a museum, you enter into another reality, another dimension of the reality that is your life.

“You are not visitor anymore but ‘passenger’ of a travel to different realities of the mind. I represent people in this liquid flow. I collect tracks of these mental explorations among shreds of memories.”

Art Advisory Council exhibitions are funded by the Port Washington Library Foundation.
